4 MONTH BIG GUIDE

50p

ISSUE NO. 2

Hi Gang,

Well what can I say ? Issue 1 of 'Tosh Tales' was a great success so here is Issue 2.

We've had a busy four months, playing the Belton Tavern for the first time, also entertaining the East Norfolk Beaver, Cub & Scout Groups at the Circus in Yarmouth and playing at the Royal Norfolk Show.

Anne-Marie and Chris Jarvis put on a cracking do, down in deepest Shotley, where we shared the limelight with John King, Terry Rouse, and Jeff. Mind you the mozzies can't 'alf bite in deepest Suffolk. I think perhaps the Mozzies down there should be named the 'Chelmondiston Chompers'. (Good name for a band ?)

I have retired the Black Guitar and Semi- Retired the blue one. But guess what ? We have two new Guitars!!

As you may have noticed the gig guide goes on right up until the New Year. This is because I want the next issue to start in January. Its quite scary actually, because although I have already started to take bookings for 2008, I've even had one come in for 2009! How about that?

The new album is progressing well. As usual with my songs I never have any pre-conceptions about how they will sound, I start to record them and let them take on a life of their own. There is a lot more of me in this album so I hope you'll all enjoy it. Hopefully I can get it released by the start of the New Year. And with that I shall stop driveling, See you on the gig list,

Tosh handing over his black IBANEZ to its new owner and friend Mr Sean Stock. Complete with a free set of strings! (We like silly photos)

These are Tosh & Di's extended family of guitars. Although as you have already seen one has flown the nest. But thanks to Nick at 'Humbucks', we now have a new addition.

FRIDGE MAGNET

An old man and his daughter go to the doctor for his monthly checkup. During examination, the doctor asks how his nightly incontinence is.

"It's fine," says the old man. "I just get up and go to the bathroom, and God turns on the light for me."

The doctor finishes up the examination, and then calls in the daughter to tell her about the God-light thing.

"Oh, my God!" says the daughter. "He's been using the fridge again!"
